KALYN JAMES NAMED COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER OF ARTS FOR LEARNING, INC.

Miami, FL (February 14, 2006) ---Kalyn James has been named Communications Officer of Arts for Learning. Mrs. James primary responsibilities include event and meeting coordination, support to Board of Directors in coordinating individual & corporate cultivation efforts, and managing PR efforts. She will report directly to the Executive Director and support general administrative business, fundraising efforts, and public relation initiatives. She has been with Arts for Learning for nearly 3 years, previously serving the organization as a teaching artist.

Before relocating to Miami, Mrs. James served as Communications Manager for HealthSouth in Birmingham, Alabama. She is also a former Miss Alabama (1993) who placed in the top-ten in the 1994 Miss America Pageant.

Arts for Learning/Miami is a nonprofit partnership with Miami-Dade County Public Schools, Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs, and Young Audiences, Inc., a national leader in arts education. The organizations programs enable over 12,000 children and youth to be more engaged in learning and enriched through arts and cultural experiences.

Please contact Kalyn James at 305-576-1212, extension 32 for more information about Arts for Learning.
